

7.2 For Internationally-trained Physicians that currently do not hold a Licence to Practise Medicine elsewhere in Canada

This section applies to internationally-trained physicians who currently do not hold licensure to practise medicine in another jurisdiction in Canada.

To qualify for a licence with the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Saskatchewan (CPSS), a physician must:

- a. Demonstrate that the physician meets the following requirements (please refer to the 'requirements tab' for further details on the following points below):
  - Proof of Identify, and
  - English Language Proficiency, and
  - Evidence of Good Standing from each of the jurisdictions in which the internationally-trained applicant is currently registered* and,
  - Evidence of Good Character.
- b. Complete an Application for Medical Registration (AMR), through physicianapply.ca and pay the fee.
- c. Obtain insurance, malpractice coverage or similar protection for Saskatchewan.
- d. Provide information on any additional/completed training, experience, examinations, or assessments.
- e. Provide proof of registration in a foreign jurisdiction.

Additional notes:

The CPSS will make a registration decision and provide written notice within 20 business days *after receiving all the necessary information from the physician and/or jurisdiction(s) in which the physician is currently licenced.

The CPSS will make an assessment decision and provide written notice of the decision together with written reasons to an internationally-trained applicant within 50 days *after receiving all necessary information. An assessment decision occurs if an internationally-trained applicant is determined to require additional training, experience, examinations or assessments in order to be eligible for a registration decision.

\ In the case of an internationally-trained applicant who is not currently registered with a regulatory body, documentation from the regulatory body the internationally-trained applicant was most recently registered with confirming the internationally-trained applicant was in good standing.*
