

7.1 For Physicians that Currently Hold a Licence to Practice Medicine in Canada

This section applies to physicians who qualify for a regular licence on the basis that the physician currently holds a licence to practise medicine in another jurisdiction in Canada.

To qualify for a regular licence, a physician who currently holds a licence to practise medicine in Canada must:

a. Demonstrate that the physician meets the requirements that apply to all applicants for licensure:

- English Language Proficiency*, and
- Credential Verification*, and
- Examinations, and
- Currency Of Practice, and
- Good Character, and
- Good Standing.

(Please see the requirements page for details regarding the above points)

b. Not be subject to any limitations, conditions or restrictions for which equivalent limitations, conditions or restrictions cannot be applied in Saskatchewan.

A physician who holds a licence to practise medicine in Canada that is subject to limitations, conditions or restrictions may not be eligible for a regular licence.

 Required if you are a physician with a foreign medical degree.
