

CPSS Welcomes New Legal Counsel to Staff

SASKATOON, July 10, 2015 – The College of Physicians and Surgeons of Saskatchewan is pleased to welcome Mr. Christopher Mason, J.D. as its new junior Legal Counsel.

For 18 years, Christopher Mason provided investigative litigation support and consulting services to both private and public businesses, law firms and all levels of government. For 8 of these years he owned his own Investigation and Consulting business. He has worked extensively throughout western Canada. Mr. Mason obtained his law degree from the University of Saskatchewan in 2014 and completed his articles in Saskatoon.

“The challenge of working in Regulatory Law coupled with working alongside an amazing team of people has always been my goal. I am happy to be able to attain these two goals at the College,” stated Mr. Mason.

“Mr. Mason is an experienced private investigator, and with his legal expertise, will be an asset to the College in its legal work. We are pleased to have him join our staff and look forward to working together,” added Dr. Karen Shaw, Registrar at the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Saskatchewan.
